DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

2. Claims 1-5 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hagino et al. '262.

Hagino et al. show cup shaped housing 30, 24, guide rode134, coil 118, 120, armature 128, annular fixing member 57, support rubber plate 96 and projection 59.

Re- claims 2-3, note rubber member 61.

Re- claim 4, note caulking as broadly recited at 34 in Figure 1.

Re- claim 5, note second mounting member 12 and rubber elastic body 14.

Re- claim 20, the damper of Hagino et al. is an active damper.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 10/3/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants argue that Hagino et al does not teach the technique for positioning. Assuming this is true, the claims are apparatus claims not method claims and therefore, no technique is claimed. The rejection is maintained.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
